MERCHANTS, MECHANICS, FARMERS & CITIZENS of SALINA & SURRO

SALINA, KANSAS, THURSDAY, DEC. 16, 1886.

An Immense BANKRUPT Stock of FURNISHING GOODS, HATS AND CAPS, BOOTS AND TRUNKS.

Which must be sold at once at Bankrupt Prices. Owing to an immense failure in New York the assignee offers the Stock at Private Sale, therefore we will sell these Goods at the Lowest Prices:

BARGAINS

BARGAINS

vercoats Suits BANKRUPT

THESE ARE ALL NEW GOODS, AND MUST BE SOLD. EVERY ONE COME AND SECURE BARGAINS.

Bankrupt Clothing Co.

IRON AVENUE, 6 DOORS EAST OF POSTOFFICE.

ADVERTISING RATES.

FOR ONE WEEK FOR TWO WEEKS. NOR THUSE WEEKS. FIR POUR WHERE. PARK TWO MAINTEN. FOR THESE DURING. FOR HIE BUSTLE. 12.00 | Gentlet column... 34.00 | tence; hence the imprisonment for 10.00 | Whole column... 68.00 | life. THE OWN THAT One lach Str 00 Five inches E18 00
Two luches 17 00 Guarter column 22 00
Three inches 21 00 Half column 00 00
Four inches 20 00 Whole column 100 00
Whole column 100 00
Whole column 100 00
Whole column 100 00
Whole column 100 00
Whole column 100 00
Whole column 100 00
Whole column 100 00
Whole column 100 00
Whole column 100 00
Whole column 100 00 Professional or Business Cards, occupying whos inch of space, one year, $10.

E3*Legal Notices at Legal Raise.

23 Business Nation in News or Local Columns room conta a line. 88 Assess Advertisers are allowed the privi-lage of secucional changes OFFICIAL CITY DIRECTORY.

Steel Ward--Taylor Miller, W. J. Hagter,

Second ward-O. D. Jackson, Fred Quiney. Third Ward-T.D. Fitznatrick, J.D.M. Conrad W. D. Badelle....Trenauver E. E. Bowen ... SCHOOLSESS OF STAND OF SECONDATION.

Joseph Satgent County Chiefe. ... Consty Atterney DE. W. J. Drawn.Judge of Probate Court

C. S. Pinither.

B. O. Binds.

RAILBOAD TIME-TABLE. URION PACIFIC—MAIN LIES.

SALENA & SOUTHWESTERN,

ble ceremony. It is expected that all and September shows the amount of or quite all of the ex-Governors will Government land still unappropriatbe present.

2.5 Quarter column... 200 papers containing the scandal to be adapted to agriculture, b 450 half schuss... 1000 kicked down the back stairway. ed for grazing purposes. God save the Queen !

WILLIE BALOWIN, the young man who murdered his slater some eighteen months ago in Atchison, has been to the Supreme solution 1250 refused a new trial by the Supreme 2000 limit common 2000 Court, and will spend the balance of His sentence was that he should be 7.50 (hereir column. 15.00 hanged, but the Governor by the 11.50 Whole column 45.00 present law is allowed to "shirk the present law is allowed to "shirk the responsibility" of executing the sen-

whose laws or constitutions were pro- hands with him. hibitory, as in Kansas. The Senator Police Judge woon found that such a law would beClerk | unconstitutional because it partook of Band Oversor | the nature of special legislation, and For Ford—J. H. Silands and C.R. Underwood ever, it was learned that this idea ing the year 1855, many of them to seem Hard—W. H. Bishep and C. Eler-would be constitutional and effective the amount of $100,000. The total Third Word W. S. Flanders and R. A. Lovitt as follows: To furnish permits, only Joseph Word A. Shelts and D. A. VatTrine.

Attacked Persons—S. Wilson and J. H. Ander having persons who gave evidence of having persons who gave evidence of having persons. OFFICIAL COUNTY DIRECTORY. at an early date. The origin of the and delivered in the same countles

Congassa is likely to find enough to keep it busy,if it gives consideration to Regular of Dieda all the demands of organized labor in County Surveyor the way of legislation which have been formulated by the Knights of Labor. There is one demand, however, that is in line with the action of the Hoose in the present congress, declaring the forfeiture of all unclaimed railway land and grants and only nords the concurrent action of the senate to be fully satisfied. There can be no good reason for confirming the rives 130 c. z. Ho. marries 11.31 z. z. title of a corporation to public fands to 1.37 A. n. No. 322 do 7.45 c. n. to 1.35 c. z. title of a corporation to public fands the first blow, you must be punished. The first blow, you must be punished. A minute later the captain's pretty of 1.35 c. n. to 1.35 do 1.35 the duty of the government to resume to be attended with some considera- State Board of Agriculture for August ed in the Salina district to be as follows: Ottawa county, 40 acres; Sa-

THE remarkable development of southern manufactures, which has been witnessed for some years, continues without interuption. Within refused a new trial by the Supreme the last three months there have been his natural days in the penitentiary. include the eleven which secoded and organized in the twelve states, which since His sentence was that he should be West Virginia, 417 companies, of which 65 are formed to build railroads and 98 to engage in some form of iron working. It is a record of progress almost without parallel even in this wumps, and adds: "Where else can Sonator Edmunds; that Mr. Edthey find shelter? They have been munds denies that he ever believed too much demoralized by their tramp- Mr. Blaine dishonest, or that he has ing life to be received into any respect- ever said so; and that, on his part, would try and set the barn on fire tor Edmunds will say this much puband kill the stock to show their grati- liely, he, Blaine, will not stand off. If Mr. Bislue, however, leaves the matter to Senator Voorhees, as ref-Some time ago Senator Ingall s in- eree, there will be no reconciliation. troduced a bill in the U. S. Senate for The Indiana Senator says that Edbidding the issuing of government munds behaved like an old sneak, Fourth Ward-R. P. Cravens, J. E. Gebbart. permits for the sale of liquors in states and that Blaine should never shake

FROM recent reports of the county clerks of Kausas to the Railroad Commissioners it is learned that nearly was not equal in its application as a nine-tenths of the counties in the tax measure. Subsequently, how- state have voted railroad bonds durever, it was learned that this idea ing the year 1835, many of them to amount of county bonds voted in sevto these persons who gave evidence of enty-five counties is $2,253,003; town having complied with state laws. ship bonds $2,353,990, and city bonds, Senator Ingalis will introduce this $616,500. The total amount issued bill may be accredited to the Kansas was as follows: County bonds, $283,-| Woman's Christian Temperance | 000,000; to wnship bonds, $997,000; elty bonds, $122,000. Most of these do not fall due for thirty years,

> A BRAVE LAD! "Been fighting, eh?"
> "Yes, sir; I could not help it."

"Didn't you know that fighting among the men was against the rule Yes, sir. I knew fliat?" "And knowing it, you fought. When I asked you who struck the first blow you owned that you did."

'I own that I gave the first blow.' Why did you give the first blow? "I decline to answer, sir."
"None of the men will tell me eith Well, my lad, since you gave she saked her husband what the matter was, and on being informed, she

THE inauguration of Gov. Martin is | The report of the Secretary of the | iy allowed her to have her own way in most things. 'Let it be so for the present," he said; but he made up his mind that he would carry out his purpose of ogging the youth at night, while somehow," he continued. "Disci-pline must be preserved. Aloft, you on't come down till I tell you to,' be added, as dressing Tom. Martha used every effort to prevent his being punished, even in this way. but all in vain. Her husband was firm, and up went Toni, bareheaded. in a scorehing sun, to take his place far aloft on the mizzen top-gallant

By-and-by little Ben, the captain's son, a child of ten, and a favorite with all hands, came on deck. The boy was fond of climbing, and more than once had he frightened his mother nearly to death by his venturesome The weather on this day was calm and very warm. The slfip was lying in the Atlantic, a little to the sor of the line, w thout a breath of air to and, taking advantage of the absence low, and of his father's being busy with the mate in taking an observa tien, he was soon nimbly mountie the missen rigging. He had reache any of the watch on deck, all of whom were busy,

Then one of them gave notice of Ben's whereabouts, upon which there was some excitement aft. Martha came up on hearing the noise, and joined her pleading voice to her hus-band's in trying to coax the child to on hands and knees, he commences to crawl out towards the end of the yard. Though the weather was calm the ship rolled and pitched, now and hen, in a heavy swell, and, st such limes, the auxious mother would turn was once or twice thrown sideways hould falt from his precarious posi-

Meanwhile, no one dared to go up after him, for, in that case, in his hurry and excitement to get away from his pursuer, he would certainly tumble from the yard. The boy had nearly reached the with the gasket-a slender rope at suched to the yard-which he had inwould, and was twining about his breast, when all at once, the ship was struck by that most dreaded of all tempests—a cylone.

Without a moment's warning—will the sky and the sun perfectly clear of clouds and mist, the squali came down, shrinking, rearing and howling, as if a legion of unseen had suddenly dropped from the heavens. Whish sh! whoms!-rattle! Bang!

rash! Away went the libs and the seizen topsail, parting its sheet, comas little Ben was knocked by the luln's wife. He had not informed the slatting sail from the yard. But, captain of this before slatting sail from the yard. But, sumshow, the turns of the gasket, which he had twined about his broast had become foosely hitched, so that they held his light form for the present, although it was evident that they maint soon become uninatened. There he now hang, about ten feet below the end of the yard, swaying like a pendulum above the raging sea, his shrill cries half drowned by the roar of sea and galo.

The same nobility of character which he bad shown aboard the "Watchlight" was afterwards exhibited in other ways by Tom Winder, and this kill as a sailor, finely won for him the company of the British Emily but housely in the bonds I have contending for the welfare of my long, that this Emil attained, all Strife in on see with his to for common Master frence joined in the Combination? I amount for the earth of the company with the season of the British Emily but housely in the bonds I have contending for the welfare of my long, that this Emil attained, all Strife in their own safety beauty along with her bows buried.

To the first, I reply that I did not see with the I can be alterated to save him the was a first and the season of the British Emily but housely in the bonds I have contending for the welfare of my long, that this Emil attained, all Strife in the from the man punished, even to save the was the first the War a defensive one, Until the from for the present the Man of the was favorable a situation to look the War a defensive one, Until the from for the was favorable as attraction. I ame willing to stand or fall—in bean add was it not afterwards accounts to the wor the was favorable as attraction. I ame willing to stand or fall—in cleared the wreck; but now the mizzen-topmast was swaying as if that was destined to go too.

The cries of the poor mother were distressing to hear. Above the roar of the gale they could be heard, while she wrung her hands and beat her bosom, like one half crazed.

From his position aloft Tom Winder had witnessed the whole scene, and now being a resolute fellow, he is course. That address, in the his course of a Sold-learning to the guided in the negligent confidence of a Sold-learning to the public Eye) I continued to be guided in the negligent confidence of a Sold-learning to the public Eye of the negligent confidence of a Sold-learning to the public Eye of the negligent confidence of a Sold-learning to the negligent confidence of a Sold-lea determined to risk his life in a way which none of his shipmates would have dared to do, for the rescue of lit-The most was awaying like a whipstalk, and he believed it would soon go over; but this peril did not for a next influence his decision. Unfastening the top-galians-sail gasket, and cutting it clear with file sneath-knife, he only clutched the rope between his teeth, and descended the dangerous half-broken fee topsail tift, clear of the slating sail, thus reaching the end of the topsail-yard. Fastening one end of the rope to the spar, he secured the arms. Then ne went down by the rope, hand over hand, until he was at Ben's side. "Put your arms around my neck, and cling to my back, he shouted. The child obeyed, when, catting off some of the rope which had held the boy, he with it lashed him as well as he could to his shoulders. He then elimbed the gasket by which he hung, and thus with his burden regained the end of the topsail-yard. Here he paused a few moments to which he now cut clear from the spar, the little boy more securely to his back. Next, ascending the perilous life by which he had come down, he finally reached the top gallant cross trees with his precious charge. It had been risky work, for the mast, swaying wildly, seemed every second ready to go, and he now hastened to descend by the shrouds to the deck.

Scarcely had he reached the top,
when, both lifts parting, away went the top-gallant mast; and aithough its falling showed how narrow had been his escape, yet he and the boy were now out of reach from it, as it fell clear off them to reward dropping into the sem. Two minutes later little Ben was in his mother's arms, and, the next mo-ment the violence of the storm having by this time abated, she could make when the voyage was over he used his influence to have the lad promoted to the position of third officer aboard another vessel which he was to com-mand. Previous to this, when all the other men had been discharged from the "Watchlight," Tom had informed the skipper that the blow he had given the man, with whom he had fought, had been dealt to avenge his esptain of this before, as he did not wish to set the part of a tale-bearer,

BENEDICT ARNOLD'S APOLOGY.

An Address to Americans in Vindication of His Treitorous Course. From the Kingston Freeman, Nov. 13.

traitor's own handwriting, was found all America Confessed that the overthis afternoon in a barrel of old papers by C. P. Carter, in Kingston-The precious document is now in the possession of the Freeman For over a century it has "laid around any-Excess-Do any believe we were at wheres," and it has finally been dis-covered by the merest accident. The document was found in the same loft tion? and thus have been where the Aaron Burr letters and the DUPED BY A VIRTUOUS CREDULITY secret ciphers were discovered recent- in the precautious moments of luly. The Arnold letter is reproduced (emperate passion to save a nation there as near as it is possible to do so wanting both the will and power to -the capitalization, punctuation, and protect us, and siming at the destruc-paragraphing having been followed tion both of the Mother Country and closely, as follows:

To the inhabitants of America: I Common Sense, for I pretend to no abould forfeit in my opinion, the cansistry, did the pretended treaty place I have so long held in yours, if with the Court of Versailes amount to it could be indifferent to your own more than an Overture to America.

Once over Crippes, Lawrence & Ca. approbatin, and silent on the motives which have induced me to join the has been given by the people to Con King's Arms. A very few words nowever, shall suffice upon a subject so personal, for to the Thousands who suffer under the tyranuy of unsurpers, in the Revolted Provinces, as In the firm persussion thefore that well as to the great multitude who have long wished for its subversion, widual Citizen of this Country is as this instance of my conduct can want no Vindication, and as to that Class of Men who are criminally

PROTRACTING THE WAR

In the firm persuasion therore that the private Judgement of any Indication of this Country is as free from all conventional restraints since as before the insidious offer of France I pefered those from Great Britain, thinking it infinitely wiser from Sinister Motives at the Expense and safer, to cast my confidence upor of the Public Interest, I prefer their his justice and generosity, than to Earnity to their Applaase. I am, therefore, only concerned in this address to Explain syself to such of my Countrymen, as want abilities or Opportunities, to detect the artifices by which they are dured. by which they are duped.

Having fought by your sides, when the Love of our Country animated our Arms, I shall expect from your frankly declarer, that in these principles in the determined to Retain my other in the state of Mankind while she holds her Native Sone in Vassalage and Chains I Affect no disguise, and therefore frankly declarer in these principles. the Love of our Country animated our Arms, I shall expect from your frankly declare, that in these principles I had determined to Retain my ceivers with more Art and less honestly, will find it inconsistant with their nity to Surrender then, to Great Brit-own Views to Admit.

When I quitted domestic Happiness for the Perils of the Field. I conceive ful as it would have been beneficial to ed the rights of my Country in danger my Country, I was only Solicitous to and honor called me to her defense. Accomplish an Event of decisive Imherself heard as sho thanked him with tears in her eyes.

"Ay," said the captain, "and well does be deserve your thanks, for a plackler rescue I never witnessed. Heaven bless you, lad!" be added, turning to Tom, "and I may say that never again, while you are aboard this craft, shall my hand be raised against you!"

A redress of grievance was my only object and alm. However I acquires the possible, in the Execution of it the possible in a Step which I thought precipitate. The Declaration of independence. To justify this measure many plausible Reasons were urged—which could no longer Exist, when Great Britain with the Open Arms of a Partent, shall my hand be raised against you!"

Ensures and citizens, that I find solid grounds to reity upon the elemency of our sorting and citizens, that I find solid grounds to reity upon the elemency of our storting and citizens, that I find solid grounds to reity upon the elemency of our storting and citizens, that I find solid grounds to reity upon the elemency of our storting and citizens, that I find solid grounds to reity upon the elemency of our storting and citizens, that I find solid grounds to reity upon the elemency of our storting and citizens, that I find solid grounds to reity upon the elemency of our storting and citizens, that I find solid grounds to reity upon the elemency of our storting and citizens, that I find solid grounds to reity upon the elemency of our storting and citizens, that I find solid grounds to reity upon the elemency of our storting and citizens, that I find solid grounds to reity upon the elemency of our storting and citizens, that I find solid grounds to reity upon the elemency of our storting and citizens, that I find solid grounds to reity upon the elemency of our storting and citizens, that I find solid grounds to reity upon the elemency of our storting and citizens, that I find solid grounds to reity upon the elemency of our storting and citizens, that I find solid grounds to reity upon the elemency and citizens, the could be a storting an and honor called me to her defense. A redress of grievance was my only

And now that her worst Enumies and privileges of the Colonies unimpaired, together with their perpetual exemption from taxation but to superadd such further benefits as may consist with the common prespectly cause fellow Subjects were Considered of the Empire. In abort, I fought to superadd the Empire. cause fellow Subjects were Considered of the Empire. In short, I fought as Foss-you have fell the Tortures in | for much less than the Parents Coun which we raised our the Country of the which we raised our arms against a try is as willing to great to her Col-Brother! God fucilize the Guilty pro onless as they can be to receive ar Brother! God Incline the Guilty protractors of these unatural dissentions, to resign their Ambition and ceace

DELIBIOSS IN COMPASSION TO KIE-

Comparison of land grants and in their passacions.

Leave Agrice

Table 8.

Mary Mary Street, Sec.

of some Imperfections in our Councils as proposals prior to the Parliamentry Commission of 1778, but having less to

Certainly not because no Authority

In the firm persuasion thefore that ties of Mankind while she holds her

Arms and Command for an Opportu

Some may think I continued in the struggle of those enhappy days to long, and others that I quitted too soon. To the first, I reply that I did

PHYSICIAN, May Lyon Cotton, M.D. S. Santa Fe. Office bours 9 to 10 a. M.; 2 to 5 7.M do in the Cabinent than the field, (1 will not pronounce premptotlly a J. G. MOHLER, ATTORNEY - AT - LAW, SALINA, SS. Office on Ask St., between 5th and th streets

BUSINESS CARDS.

MOORE & QUINBY,

ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW Office over First National Strak. SALINA, RANSAS.

C. B. QUINCY.

SALINA, KANSAB.

JOHN J. GEIS.

Motary Public and Conveyancer Office over Whitehead & Seamen's Seckstore

J. W. JENNEY. Homeopathic Physician. Other to Pestoffice Hock, Irea Avenue, Sallan

E. . R SWITZER, M. D., Graduate of Rebill University, Hontreat, Camada,

OFFICE at Besidence-west end of ire

S. C. SERVILLE H OUSE, Sign, Franco and Carriago Palutar.
Maching, graining and paper hunging done
rith meatons and dispatch.
Ma. 65 Pitth street, Sallen Enums.

W. B. DEWEES., M. D. Physician and Surgeon, (Graduate of Dalmestry of Pa.) OFFICE-Over New York flam

Dr. Dewoes having practical his preferation for 10 years in Pennsylvania, at the request of trievale has persassefully located in Raljan. Having his way rouse he is able to promptly during all calls day and night, in city and country. ready and Racital spoken. Charges madered

J. W. CROWLEY, M. D., into Surgeon in 10th Mrs. Vol. Cav. Mandence on Sth at., hand of Mai-HELCHOR G. COCKEY, M. D., lete for recome.

Office in new Dully Hock. SALINA, KANAR

DR. R. E. NICKLES,

Pacific House!